Prayer and Spirituality

Instructor: Ms. Jeannette Easley

Tuesdays, March 12, 19 (no class 26), April 2, 9, 16, 23

9:15 – 11:30a.m.

In this course we will study the different forms and methods of prayer that people have used to encounter and deepen their relationship with God, from the early desert fathers and female mystics to the spirituality and prayer front-runners of today.

Various methods of praying will be explored and practiced from oral prayer, praying with Scripture; Viso Divina, and finally contemplative prayer. Your interior life matters and the way you are encountering your loving God interiorly matters even more. The God, who created each of us and has loved us from all eternity, desires for us to become one with him.

You are invited and encouraged to embrace this opportunity to discover God's tireless embrace through the experiences of prayer, which can lead to an everlasting intimate relationship with the God who desires and initiates this relationship.

This course will be offered at the following locations:
