

THEOLOGY AT THE WELL

SEPTEMBER 9, 2010

“Give me your tired....”

The words etched into the statue of liberty represent the US acceptance of immigrants. But the issues surrounding immigration, legal and illegal, are more complex. Fr. Dan Morales will lead us in a Catholic look at immigrants and immigration.

“That’s not how I learned it!”

The US Church is on the brink of issuing a new “Order of the Mass” that will change some of the texts used at the Mass. Fr. Tommy Chen gives an overview of the changes and helps us understand how the changes can help deepen our experiences at Mass.

“Surviving Scandal”

Recent scandals have hurt the church, but she has triumphed over scandal before because the truth of her message is stronger than the weaknesses of her human members. Fr. Stan Deboe addresses the issues of the most recent scandals and helps us find the path to healing and growth as a church community.

“Why Get Married Anyway?”

Society seems to have decided that marriage isn’t necessary. But Catholics know there is a reason for this sacrament. Matt and Lupe Schaefer offer insight into the meaning of the sacrament and talk about living a Catholic marriage, from dating onward.

NOVEMBER 4, 2010

“Continuing Strife”

Is spiritual warfare real or just superstition? What is it exactly and what role do we as Catholics have in it? Fr. Bob Knippenberg answers our questions.

NOVEMBER 11, 2010

“I am the Life”

Jesus came to give us life. It is easy to get bogged down in the problems and tragedies in this “vale of tears”. But in order to have His joy and peace, we must see what He has in store for us.

Brother Patrick Wildgen discusses the hope of the resurrection and how we can truly live this hope.

Theology at the Well is sponsored by the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry of the Diocese of Victoria and facilitated by the Catholic Young Adult Group of Victoria and is open to all young adults. This program is a casual forum of straight talk, hard facts and real answers to living our faith.

Sessions are from 6:45 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Thursday evenings at Chili’s - 5004 N. Navarro in Victoria. Bring a friend!
